The customer undertakes:

- To observe the overall schedule of the Proficiency Testing Program (PTP),
- To observe instructions for sample handling,
- To perform the analysis in its own laboratory or in a laboratory which usually performs such works on the basis of a long-term contract,
- Not to consult the measured results with other participants. If a suspicion is confirmed about unfair agreements between the participants, then the Proficiency Testing Program (PTP) organizer reserves the right to exclude those participants from the ongoing proficiency testing.
- To pay a full price for samples ordered obligatorily, even if they are not collected,
- To pay the amount for being subject to the Proficiency Testing Program (PTP) and to document it with a receipt, based on which the participant will receive a final report about PTP result and an applicable certificate,
- To pay on account beforehand. Account number: 1929659319/0800 (Česká spořitelna, a.s., Czech Republic)
- To acknowledge a fact to submit the final report from the PTP provider directly to a party involved or a regulatory body, if requested,
- To acknowledge a possibility to submit written objections to the main coordinator within 10 days from the day on which the objected fact occurred.

PTP provider notifies:

- Particular tests will be only performed for 10 participants at minimum,
- Subcontractors' services will be used for realization of the proficiency testing.

The last date to send a written purchase order (ALME-OR-01, 02, 03, 06, 10, 11): May 10th, 2022
